212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

DEC. 19, 1905.

For the past few days the weather, though damp and disagreeable, has been favorable for hauling tobacco.

The court of appeals has affirmed the death sentence of Wm. Van Dalsen, who murdered Fannie Porter, and he will be hanged Jan. 19.

The court of appeals has held the ordinance in Louisville establishing the license system of taxation to be unconstitutional. Another attempt will be made to pass an ordinance conforming to the law.

The great "Home Coming" week planned for Louisville next June is expected to be one of the notable events of the new year. There are 600,000 native Kentuckians living in other states and the plan is to have as many of them as possible revisit the state at that time.

Dr. R. R. Grady, senator from the Todd county district, has published a card declaring for Paynter for senator. Senator E. C. Ward, of Henderson, has announced that he will vote for Blackburn. There are now very few of them left on the doubtful list.

One by one the big railroad systems are retaliating on the politicians because of the railroad rate legislation about to be inaugurated. The Baltimore and Ohio has announced that after Jan. 1st it will issue no more passes, except to its officers and employees.

The Owensboro Messenger calls attention to the fact that 20,000 barrels of flour are manufactured a year in that city. This is doing pretty well for Owensboro, but Hopkinsville is the "miniature Minneapolis" of the South. We have one mill that turns out 1,200 barrels a day and two others that bring the total up to about 1,700 a day. Owensboro's output would keep our mills busy about two weeks.

Out of 287 cases decided by the court of appeals during the term just ended, 21 were dismissed and 110 reversed. When nearly half of the cases that go up are held to have been decided wrong in the lower courts, it is a somewhat significant commentary on the kind of circuit judges that are found in many districts. If law is a set of codified principles, little judges as well as big ones ought to be able to guess right once in a while.

A Washington special says: Never before has there been such a diversity of occupations and professions represented in the house of representatives. Lawyers, as usual, are in the majority. They poll 210 votes. Of physicians in the house there are only two; Dr. Barchfield, the tallest, wisest and heaviest man in congress, and his colleague, Dr. Samuel, of Pennsylvania. John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, graduated in medicine, but he has not practiced lately. Next to lawyers come bankers, of whom there are fifteen. Manufacturers and farmers come next with thirteen members each. Editors and merchants come next with eleven.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla enjoys the distinction of being the greatest curative and preventive medicine the world has ever known. It is an all-round medicine, producing its unequalled effects by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood on which the health and strength of every organ, bone and tissue depend. Accept no substitute for Hood's, but insist on having Hood's AND ONLY HOOD'S.

AFTER LONG SUFFERING

Mrs. Tuggle Passes Away at Her Home Near Caledonia.

Mrs. E. W. Tuggle, a much esteemed Christian woman of near Caledonia, died Friday night of pneumonia, aged about 60 years. She had been an invalid for two years, suffering from paralysis. Mrs. Tuggle was a native of Virginia and was born in Charlotte county. She had been a member of the Baptist church for many years. Deceased is survived by five children. One of her sons, Mr. L. A. Tuggle, resides in this city. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Bertha Kunz Baker.

The following comment concerning Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker, who will present "If I Were King," "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "Parsifal" at the Union Tabernacle Dec. 19-20.

Mrs. Baker is as delightful a reader as she is a thorough scholar. Her recitals are marked by extraordinary force and a thorough appreciation of her subject. She interprets the great dramas in a masterly style and never fails to enlist the sympathies of her audience, a fact which was well shown by their frequent approval last evening.—Philadelphia Times.

Mrs. Baker's reading is great reading—great in its directness, its naturalness, its effects. Such reading is an inspiration; it reveals the highest—the spiritual—side of the poem, and, in turn, uplifts and inspires the listener—Mrs. Emily M. Bishop, principal of the Chautauqua Department.

I have always disliked to hear my own poems read, but it was a pleasure to me to listen to Mrs. Baker's reading of "Judith and Holofernes." She has, I think, that magnetic quality which is not to be taught in schools.—Thos. B. Aldrich, Boston, Mass.

HERNDON NOTES.

Young Couple Elope to Tennessee and Are Made One.

The beautiful weather which we have been enjoying all the fall seems to be at an end at last.

But Christmas is nearly here and roads or weather don't have much effect on young people, then we should be satisfied.

Dr. E. L. Gates visited his parents at Kirkmansville last week.

Little Mamie Cravens is very ill with pneumonia.

Misses Mattie and Mary Major were guests of Miss May Vaughn, at Elmo, Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. R. F. Joiner spent Saturday and Sunday in your city.

Mrs. Walker Flaning visited relatives at Oak Grove last week.

Miss Sallie Faulkner and Mrs. Edgar Carter were in Hopkinsville Wednesday.

There will be a Christmas tree at the school house at this place Monday night December 25, under the management of Prof. R. F. Joiner and the ladies of this place. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and bring presents for their friends.

Mr. Major White, of New York, is visiting Mr. C. M. Johnston.

Mr. Herbert Cravens, of Herndon, and Miss Edna Thomas, of Bennetts-town, eloped to Tennessee and were married by Rev. Joiner Sunday. The groom is one of our most popular and successful young farmers, while the bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady and is a general favorite in the neighborhood. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

AMUSEMENTS.

John Griffith is coming here on Friday, Dec. 22, to play Shakespeare's tragedy, "King Richard the Third" at Holland's opera house. No actor of the present day seems to have the physical and mental qualities of Mr. Griffith, so far as fitness for this most arduous role is concerned. He represents the animated, strenuous type of actor—the big, manly wholesome fellow who appeals to admirers of rugged, healthful masculinity. His devotion to Shakespeare is almost abnormal and there's no apparent limit to the enthusiasm he displays in his representation of the dominant characters in the great master's plays. On the occasion of his coming visit his manager promises the support of a most excellent company, with brilliant scenic and costume equipment. Mr. Griffith's appearance in Richard has in every city of his route caused great enthusiasm and drawn tremendous audiences.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

Mrs. Kress Dead.

The mother of S. H. Kress, of New York, member of the firm of S. H. Kress & Co., of this city, died Friday at her home in Allen, Pa. The local store was closed from 12 to 1 o'clock Friday, during the hour of the funeral.

All Run Down

THIS is a common expression we hear on every side. Unless there is some organic trouble, the condition can doubtless be remedied. Your doctor is the best adviser. Do not dose yourself with all kinds of advertised remedies—get his opinion. More than likely you need a concentrated fat food to enrich your blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

is just such a food in its best form. It will build up the weakened and wasted body when all other foods fail to nourish. If you are run down or emaciated, give it a trial: it cannot hurt you. It is essentially the best possible nourishment for delicate children and pale, anaemic girls. We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
